

Day of Hungarian Science

RESEARCH CENTRE FOR THE HUMANITIES, INSTITUTE FOR LITERARY STUDIES HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

Ménesi street 11–13, 1118 Budapest 21 November 2018

9.00-9.10 Gábor KECSKEMÉTI (Institute for Literary Studies, HAS): Opening remarks

Session 1, Chair: Zoltán Z. VARGA (Institute for Literary Studies, HAS)

9.10–9.55 ZLYDNEVA Nataliya (Russian Academy of Sciences): Synaesthetic Imagery from Avant-Garde to Andrey Platonov: On the Problem of Border Forms

9.55–10.40 Zsuzsa HETÉNYI (Eötvös Loránd University): On the Units of the Literary Translation in Theory and Practice, with Remarks on Synaesthesia, Bilingualism, and Self-Translated Texts

10.40–10.55 Discussion

10.55–11.15 Coffee break

Session 2, Chair: András KAPPANYOS (Institute for Literary Studies, HAS)

II.15–12.00 Irina SUBOTIC (University of Arts in Belgrade): Research on the Avant-garde(s). Case Study: Zenitism

12.00–12.45 Krisztián BENYOVSZKY (Constantine The Philosopher University in Nitra): From Ornament to Reinterpretation: Prejudices, Attitudes and Approaches Related to Artistic Illustration

12.45–13.00 Discussion

13.00–14.00 Lunch break

Session 3, Chair: Sándor HITES (Institute for Literary Studies, HAS)

14.00–14.45 Levente T. SZABÓ (Babeş–Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca): Cries and Whispers.

Nineteenth-Century Theatrical Soundscapes and the Invention of Modern Theatrical Silence

14.45–15.30 Zsuzsanna VARGA (University of Glasgow): Theresa Pulszky in Vienna, Szécsény and London

15.30–16.00 Discussion

Sándor HITES (Institute for Literary Studies, HAS): Closing remarks

à laquelle tions par la Mêmoineu il les examine, les digeres se les compare par laxison, out se plait à les

et ce qui ell L'Archio Maure a FICTION L'HISTOIRE

ARCHITEC TURE NAVALE a pour objet la Construc

ESSAI D'UNE